INFORMATION CYBER INCIDENT

A security incident has been detected on one of Groupe SEB's IT networks, without any material impact on operations

Last week, Groupe SEB's IT teams detected an attempt to exploit a vulnerability. After investigations, an intrusion in the Information System has been confirmed.

The necessary measures have been taken to limit the effects of this intrusion. Also, Groupe SEB is in close contact with its clients and partners as well as with the dedicated authorities, in accordance with the RGPD (General Data Protection Regulation).

To date, and after extensive research, Groupe SEB has not identified any data leakage or damage to information systems.

The incident is currently undergoing a detailed analysis to investigate its origins allowing to reinforce existing security measures.

Groupe SEB remains vigilant, and its teams are fully mobilized to address this issue accordingly.
